S.B.CRIMINAL MISC. PETITION NO. 390/2005
(Bhanwar Lal Vs. State of Rajasthan)

Date of Order : 27/11/2006

PRESENT

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE H.R.PANWAR

Mr. R. Charan for the petitioner.
Mr. Ashok Upadhyay, public prosecutor for the State.

BY THE COURT:-

By the instant criminal misc. petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the petitioner complainant seeks a direction to the police to investigate and file result of FIR No. 339 dated 19.10.2002 Police Station, Jaitaran, Pali.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and public prosecutor for the State.

Learned public prosecutor has received Police Investigation Diary and submits that the matter is being investigated. The investigation has been carried out on certain points and one of co-accused Hanja Devi is public servant and a sanction has been obtained to prosecute her, thereafter she has been released on bail under Section 438 Cr.P.C. and now her specimen handwriting and signatures are to be taken so that the same can be sent for being examined by handwriting expert. Therefore, on the strength of police investigation diary, it cannot be said that the matter has not been investigated. The investigation is in progress.

Keeping in view the fact that the occurrence is of October 2002 almost more than four years have elapsed, it would be expedient in the interest of justice to direct the police to complete the investigation utmost expeditiously and file its report preferably within three months before the trial court.

With these directions, the petition stands disposed of.
